

Jess Nash finished her A Level exams in History, Psychology and English this summer at the Stanford & Corringham Sixth Form Centre and was part of the first cohort of students to attend our centre from 2009-2011. Jess is now studying a degree in Psychology at Winchester University. During her A

Levels Jess was presented with a 'vifty' award from Vinvolved (a Government project) for giving a total of 50 hours volunteering to the local community, an Essex Youth Award as well as a Highly Commended Award from Vinvolved for her mentoring skills.

Jess was a major organiser of the Sixth Form fund raising events which did include waxing Shaun Crisp and Ben Stroud's legs for Comic Relief! This was acknowledged with a Community Service Award from Sue Weston. During her spare time, Jess had a passion for musical theatre and dance and was part of the Aspirations Dance Company which performed several productions at the Thameside Theatre ,including We Will Rock You.
